

Privacy & Cookie Policy

Hashgreed And Our Affiliate Companies (Together "Hashgreed" Or "We" Or "Our") Are Totally Committed To Protecting And Respecting Your Privacy .

Consent

When you sign up and use Hashgreed (via our website or Google Play Store), you accept the terms described within this Privacy Policy. We will not share your personal information with anyone except as described in this Privacy policy.

In this policy "information" refers to any confidential and/or personal data or other information related to users of Hashgreed services.

This Privacy Policy Is Designed To Describe:

Who we are and how to contact us

Who we are

Hashgreed is a modern blockchain enabled financial platform meeting customers where they are: on their smartphones. We offer our customers the broadest level of choice and financial access.

How to Contact Us

Your Rights Relating to Your personal data

Request access to your personal data

This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you

This enables you to have any incorrect or incomplete information about you corrected.

Request erasure of your personal data

This enables you to ask us to delete or remove Personal Data where there is no legal reason for us continuing to process it or you object to us processing it (see below).

Object to processing of your Personal Data

This right exists where we are relying on a legitimate interest as the legal basis for our processing and there is something about your situation, which makes you want to object to processing of your Personal Data on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your Personal Data for direct marketing purposes.

Request the restriction of processing of your Personal Data

This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of Personal Data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.

Request the transfer of your Personal Data

We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your Personal Data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Withdraw consent

This right only exists where we are relying on consent to process your Personal Data ("Consent Withdrawal").

If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide you with access to the certain specific functionalities of our Site.

We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

How to exercise your personal rights

If you wish to exercise any of the rights above, please contact us using the details in Who we are and How to contact us.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any right), however, we may charge a reasonable fee for consent withdrawal if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. In the event of these circumstances we may refuse to comply with your request.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your Personal Data (or to exercise any of your other rights).

This is a security measure to ensure that Personal

Data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

Complaints

If you would like to submit a complaint regarding this Privacy Policy or our practices in relation to your Personal Data, please contact us at:

support@Hashgreed.com and 08128447600.

We endeavor to reply to your complaint as soon as possible.

If you feel that your complaint has not been adequately resolved, the NDPR gives you the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority.

Marketing Communication Preferences

If you would like us to stop sending marketing messages or modify your email preferences at any time, please follow any of these procedures:

1: Follow the opt-out messages sent in any of the emails

2: Go through the notification switch off process in the settings on your application

3: Contact us at any time using the contact details in

Who We Are and How to Contact Us.

Where you opt out of receiving these marketing messages, this will not apply to Personal Data provided to us for processing for legitimate service-related purposes.

Who We Share Your Personal Data With

Who We Share Your Personal Data With

We may share your personal data with third parties as described in the table below. We consider this information to be a vital part of our relationship with you.

1: Recipients

2: Why we share it

3: Our Affiliates

Our affiliates

Our affiliates may access your Personal Data to help us develop, maintain and provide our Services and help manage our customer relationships (including providing customer support, customer liaison, fund advisory services, etc).

Service Providers

Our service providers provide us support for our Services, including, for example, website and application development, hosting, maintenance, backup, storage, virtual infrastructure, payment processing, auto-deduct services, analysis, identity verification, background and compliance reviews, fund administration, banking services, and other services for us, which may require them to access or use Personal Data about you.

Professional Advisers

Our lawyers, accountants, bankers, auditors and insurers may need to review your personal data to provide consultancy, compliance, banking, legal, insurance, accounting and similar services. Legal and Taxing Authorities, Regulators and Participants in Judicial Proceedings.

Hashgreed may disclose your Personal Data if we believe it is reasonably necessary to comply with a law, regulation, order, subpoena, rule of a self-regulatory organization or audit or to protect the safety of any person, to address fraud, security or technical issues, or to protect our legal rights, interests and the interests of others, such as, for example, in connection with the acquisition, merger or sale of securities or a business (e.g. due diligence).

Advertisers

Certain users of the Services may have access to your Personal Data for the purpose of enabling them to interact with you and more effectively offer opportunities through the Site that are targeted towards your background and preferences.

We may also allow third-parties, including ad servers or ad networks, to serve advertisements on the Site, and such third parties may be provided with access to your Personal Data to provide advertising tailored to your interests.

Researchers

To enhance the public understanding of patterns and trends in the markets served by or Services, we may provide Personal Data to third parties under confidentiality obligations such as, for example, academics or contractors for research purposes.

API Users

A limited number of partners have API access to portions of the Site.

Examples of the most common API uses are OAuth and AML/accreditation verification of potential investors.

In addition, Personal Data you choose to add to your profile will be available for public viewing on the site.

You may ask us to show your information to a select set of Users, and we will do our best to limit disclosure to those Users but we cannot promise that no one else will see that information on the Site, nor do we control what users who are allowed to see your information will do with it.

If you want your information to remain private, don't make it available to other Users on our site. If you are a User, some of your activities may not be accessible to other Users, but other users may be able to infer certain facts about your activities and identity on Hashgreed.

In addition, Hashgreed advisers, Top level employees and lead investors may have access to your Personal Data to help them evaluate, invite and communicate with you as a User if you are a User, your information will generally be publicly available, and they may have access to your Personal Data to assist them in discovering, evaluating and tracking communications.

As we develop our business, we may buy or sell businesses or assets. In the event of a corporate sale, merger, reorganization, dissolution or similar event, we may also transfer your Personal Data as part of the transferred assets without your consent or notice to you.

We may also share non personal data (such as anonymous usage data, data referring/exit pages and URLs, platform types, number clicks, etc.) with interested third parties to help them understand the usage patterns for certain Services or conduct independent research based on such anonymous usage data.

If you request that we remove your Personal Data as described in Your Rights Relating to Your Personal Data, we will convey that request to any third-party with whom we have shared your data. We are not, however, responsible for revising or removing your Personal Data obtained by any third party who has previously been provided with your information by us in accordance with this policy or any third party to whom you have provided such information (whether by sharing your login and password, or otherwise).

We will also use this data to process payments and comply with legal and regulatory obligations (see below).

What information is stored and for how long

Payment information

To process payments on Hashgreed, we need to share some of your personal information with the person or company with whom you are transacting. This information may include:

1: Contact information (mobile number, e-mail address, personal photo)

2: Payment information (card details, banking information, wallet balance)

We will not expose your credit/debit card number or bank account number to anyone you have paid or who has paid you through

Hashgreed, except with your express permission or if we are required to do so to comply with a subpoena or other legal action.

Identity information

We collect and store personal information about you to comply with the relevant financial regulations.

Apart from the circumstance of complying with a Court Order, Arbitral Panel, Tribunal, Regulatory Directive or Order or any other legal or regulatory obligation, we do not disclose information about identifiable individuals to other parties, but we may provide them with anonymous aggregate information, such as the number of people of a certain age or sex who have performed certain transactions of a certain amount within a particular time frame, for example.

Where we use a 3rd party service, with your consent, we may share your information in order to offer the service or improve the experience of that service.

When you use such a service for the first time, you will need to review and agree to their terms and conditions, privacy policy and other related agreements where applicable.

In respect of the NDPR

In respect of each of the purposes for which we use your Personal Data, the NDPR requires us to ensure that we have a legal basis for that use.

The legal basis depends on the Services you use and how you use them.

This means we collect and use your Personal Data only where:

1: We need it to provide you the Services, including to operate the Services, provide customer support and personalized features and to protect the safety and security of the Services;

2: It satisfies a legitimate interest (which is not overridden by your data protection interests), such as for research and development, to market and promote the Services and to protect our legal rights and interests;

3: We need to process your data to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation.

We may also rely on your consent as a legal basis for using your Personal Data where we have expressly sought it for a specific purpose. If we rely on your consent to a use of your Personal Data, you have the right to change your mind at any time (but this will not affect any processing that has already taken place).

What happens when you do not provide necessary personal data?

Where we need to process your Personal Data either to comply with law, or to perform the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you (for example, to provide you with the functionalities of the Services).

In this case, we may have to stop providing you with our Services.

How Information may be disclosed

Your information may be shared in the following cases:

- 1: to fulfill a request from the regulator or government entity with sufficient authority
- 2: to fulfill other legal obligations such as a request from a court
- 3: for regulatory reporting purposes

Business transfer

In the unlikely event that Hashgreed goes into administration or is acquired, a business transfer may occur. You consent to the successor company having access to the information maintained by Hashgreed, including customer Account Information, and such successor company would continue to be bound by this Privacy Policy unless and until it is amended.

Where your personal information is stored

Hashgreed is entirely committed to protecting the information we collect from you. We maintain appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards (i.e. firewalls, data encryption, competent security guards, etc).

These processes are in place to prevent accidental, unlawful or unauthorized destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure or use of your information.

We are also planning to be certified by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) on information security management.

To achieve the purpose stated in this Privacy Policy,

Hashgreed may transfer your personal data to a "white-list" of countries who are deemed to have adequate data protection laws under the NDPR Implementation Framework 2020.

Where Hashgreed transfers your personal data to countries outside the 'white-list', we shall ensure that informed consent is obtained from you and other relevant provisions of the NDPR are complied with, to guarantee that your personal data is adequately protected.

Hashgreed is required to retain the details of transactions or payments you make via Hashgreed after the transaction is completed. We will store these transactions for the required period under the financial regulations of your jurisdiction.

How long we store your Personal Data

We will retain your information for as long as your account is active, or it is reasonably needed for the purposes set out in How We Use Your Personal Data and Why unless you request that we remove your Personal Data as described in Your Rights Relating to Personal Data.

We will only retain your Personal Data for so long as we reasonably need to use it for these purposes unless a longer retention period is required by law (for example for regulatory purposes).

This may include keeping your Personal Data after you have deactivated your account for the period of time needed for us to pursue legitimate business interests, conduct audits, comply with (and demonstrate compliance with) legal obligations, resolve disputes and enforce our agreements.

Also details of your transactions, if they are blockchain or cryptocurrency related may be recorded on our native and open distributed blockchain ledger called Kross blockchain or any such chains as the product might be built on.

How we protect your personal data

Personal Data breaches

We have a duty to self-report personal data breaches to the National Information Technology Development Agency (NITDA) within 72 hours of knowledge of such breach.

We shall immediately notify you of any breach to your personal data where such breach will likely result in high risks to your freedoms and rights.

Links to Other Websites

This Privacy & Cookies Policy applies only to the services. The Services may contain links to other websites not operated or controlled by Hashgreed.

We are not responsible for the content, accuracy or opinions expressed in such websites, and such websites are not investigated, monitored or checked for accuracy or completeness by us.

Please remember that when you use a link to go from Services to another website, our Privacy and Cookies Policy is no longer in effect. Your browsing and interaction on any other website, including those that have a link on our site, is subject to the website's own rules and policies. Such third parties may use their own cookies or other methods to collect information about you.

Your responsibilities

You are responsible for protection of your password, seed words or PIN in its entirety as communicated in our Terms and Conditions. You must not share your Hashgreed password, seed words or PIN with anyone.

We will never request for your PIN, seed words or password via email or SMS or any other means.

In the event you receive such communication, please disregard and contact us on: support@Hashgreed.com and 08128447600.

In the event you share your password, PIN or seed words with a third party, you will be held responsible for the consequences.

If you believe your password, seed or PIN has been compromised, please change it immediately and contact us. Also create a new account and move your blockchain based assets to that new account immediately.
